

Two NL Youths Excel in Health Pipeline Program

Published on 11/21/2008 in Home » Education » Education Briefs

New London - Andrea Almonte and Deidra Belcher, students at New London High School, were recently awarded certificates for Outstanding Achievement in the technology component of the Eastern Connecticut Workforce Investment Board's Health Pipeline Program as well as checks for $100 each.

The two students were presented with these awards at the Oct. 22 New London Board of Education meeting by state Sen. Andrea Stillman, a member of investment board's directors.

Regional