

Money set for laid-off Foxwoods workers

Posted Apr 08, 2010

U.S. Sens. Christopher J. Dodd, D-Conn., and Joseph I. Lieberman, I-Conn., announced Thursday that $302,757 is being supplied to the Connecticut Department of Labor to provide assistance to workers laid off from Foxwoods Resort Casino.

The funds are being allocated from the U.S. Department of Labor's National Emergency Grant Program, the senators said in a joint press release.

Copyright 2010 Norwich Bulletin. Some rights reserved